What I Like Most About Being a Quality Rated Parent Ambassador:

“ I like it because I am able to assist other Parents, families, and friends in need of resources to help them find high-quality child care, preschool, and Pre-K programs. By being a Parent Ambassador it also gives me the opportunity to to educate myself and others on what to look for in a childcare setting. Being a Parent Ambassador you can really make a difference in the community, churches, schools, etc. Families can have peace of mind knowing that any child care program that's quality rated is committed to providing children an environment and experience that is best for their child(ren) development.”

"Being a Miami native, I had a hard time finding a child care facility that I can trust. Quality Care for Children not only helped me to find the best facility for my family but also connected me with a program to help keep child care affordable as well. I chose to become a Parent Ambassador so that I can share my experience with other parents who, like me, may not be from Georgia and don't have friends and family here that can refer them to quality child care. It is my hope that all parents are made aware of this program, so that they too can benefit from the growth and security a Quality Rated Child Care facility has provided for my children." - Joi Gaitor

"I enjoy meeting parents from all over Georgia and being able to pass on my experience as a parent of a child who attends a Quality Rated child care center. When attending events, it is always a pleasure to talk to parents and explain to them why Quality Rated is where they should start their child care search. I also enjoy advising and supporting anxious parents by using my own experience which helps put their minds at ease. I want them to enjoy the process and have a positive experience as I did when I used the Quality Rated child care search tool for a child care provider. Overall, as a parent ambassador, it is a wonderful feeling to see parents happy and receptive about the information which helps them make one the most important decisions of their lives."
